

Connecting God's People with God's Work in the World 2016 MINISTRY HIGHLIGHTS

Through you our donors, God richly blessed The Outreach Foundation in 2016. Because of your trust in us and our responsibility to you, we constantly ask ourselves if we are accomplishing the three priorities set by our Board of Trustees. Below we reflect upon those three priorities and share ministry highlights for each.

Priority 1: Helping the church live out its missional calling

In Jesus' Great Commission, he calls us to go out and make disciples of all nations. (Matt 28:19) In light of that, Outreach works with churches across the U.S. to help them better understand Jesus' command and to help them be more engaged in his work. Kairos Church in Atlanta typifies a church living into that call:

As a new church development, Kairos Church began in 2008 in a living room. Then, as the congregation grew, they moved into a rented building in Grant Park. From the beginning, their ethos was to encourage one another to daily follow in the way of Jesus. In doing so, they committed to dedicate their resources to mission. They contacted The Outreach Foundation and discussed their mission plans with staff. Shortly after, 14 members traveled with Outreach on a vision trip to Haiti to see God's work through Haiti Outreach Ministries (HOM). They returned knowing that partnering with HOM would be a strong and meaningful relationship.

Since 2012, Kairos has made ten trips to Haiti, ranging from work projects to medical clinics to teacher training and VBS sessions. Additionally, they support 50 students, including an entire school class, accompanying them from preschool through 7th grade. Drew Ditzel, Kairos' senior pastor, commented about the relationship with HOM: "When we go to Haiti, the Lord profoundly deepens the bonds that are formed. People open up. When we're engaged in a different way of life, it shows you how we're supposed to encounter Jesus. I've found that we're relying on Jesus instead of thinking we are Jesus."

Priority 2:

Building the mission capacity of the global church, especially where the church is vulnerable or growing rapidly

We believe one of our most vital tasks is to help build the capacity of our global partners, especially in leadership equipping and development. The Presbyterian Church in Egypt illustrates this work:

About The Outreach Foundation

The Outreach Foundation engages Presbyterians and global partners in proclaiming the good news of Jesus Christ. Because our ministry is Kingdom work, not denominational work, we work with PC (USA), EPC, ECO, Fellowship Community congregations and others. We help congregations build long-term partnerships with the global church that are mutually transformational. Every person, project and partnership we support is directly involved in sharing the Gospel in word and deed.

Our work depends entirely upon the involvement and financial support of mission-minded individuals, congregations and organizations. We receive gifts in our office and disburse them to partners around the world. Established in 1979, The Outreach Foundation is independently governed by a Board of Trustees, all of whom are pastors or officers in their respective congregations.

Our Mission

Connecting Presbyterians to build the church's capacity to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ

Our Convictions

Committed to the historic Christian faith as it is revealed in God's Word and expressed by the ecumenical creeds and in the Reformed confessions, we affirm that

- Jesus Christ is the only Lord and Savior.
- God's grace in Jesus Christ is for all people.
- The church exists for God's glory and God's mission.
- Discipleship and mission are the calling of every follower of Jesus.
- God connects us in mission through relationships of mutual respect and support.
- The Holy Spirit empowers the church to bear witness to the Good News by its life words and deeds.

OUR PRIORITIES

Helping the church live out its missional calling

Building the mission capacity of the global church, especially where the church is vulnerable or growing rapidly, as together we

- cultivate deep, long-term relationships
- support the work of missionaries
- help each other equip leaders, plant and build churches, and strengthen ministries of compassion

Transforming lives through mission involvement

The Evangelical (Presbyterian) Church of Egypt was founded by American Presbyterian missionaries in 1854. Today, the Synod of the Nile is made up of 392 churches. It is both a vulnerable yet rapidly growing church. Three churches were bombed by the Muslim Brotherhood during the Brotherhood's governmental reign. But the Synod is undaunted—it has 95 new church plants in operation, with 17 new churches started last year alone. Yet, there are 100 Presbyterian churches currently without a pastor, depending upon evangelists, seminary students and church elders to provide worship leadership.

Medhat Yacoub is one of the "new breed" of leaders in the church. He recently graduated from the Evangelical Theological Seminary in Cairo and is awaiting ordination, yet he already has responsibility for a church. He is leading a new land grant church in El Sadat City outside Cairo. They are currently meeting in a home donated by one of the elders, but construction is in progress for the church building. He leads a congregation of approximately 20 families including 25 children. With great faith and knowing God's ability at multiplication, they are building a sanctuary to seat 300! God is at work through his people.

Priority 3: Transforming lives through mission involvement

The heart and joy of mission is relationships learning how another culture lives and worships; feeling the same emotions as mission partners when confronting poverty, war or persecution; and, frankly, learning how easy it is to be a Christian in America. Steve Wright of Zionsville Presbyterian Church, has been transformed by mission:

About a year before Steve was to retire, he began to ask God how he should use his time after retirement. God didn't hesitate responding. He started leading Steve into mission through his church. Steve was appointed to the Mission Commission, which surprised him since he never had much interest in mission previously. Steve became the liaison with The Outreach Foundation for Zionsville's work in Brazil. As he learned more about it, Steve became intrigued with the church and leadership development work of Jose Pezini, Outreach's Brazilian missionary.

Seeing is believing. Steve traveled to Brazil to experience it firsthand. He visited church plants and sat in on a pastors' retreat led by Pezini (even though it was in Portuguese!). During that time, Steve met many Brazilian pastors from around the country, creating strong bonds with them. "Involvement in Brazil with the Brazilians is like family." Steve commented. "God walked right with us in building relationships." Since then, many Brazilian pastors have visited First Presbyterian Zionsville, staying in members' homes and deepening the relationships between the Brazilians and Americans. Many have attended a three day Great Banquet retreat at Zionsville. It has been so meaningful that 17 Zionsville members will travel to Brazil in September to bring the retreat experience to the Brazilians. Steve's faith has strengthened through all of this. "I see God working in so many different ways," said Steve. "None of this would have happened without God in the middle of it."

Hooked on Mission

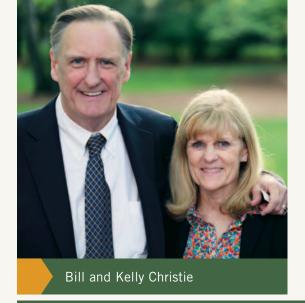

Bill and Kelly Christie knew they were hooked on "mission" when they heard Nedson Zulu and Sebber Banda speak about their Tete Province, Mozambique holistic evangelism ministry back in 2009. "It caught me as a magical ministry," Bill recalled. "I saw two people dedicating their lives to God and could just imagine the difference they were making to the people there."

Among other things, the ministry builds schools. That struck home for the Christies since both are in leadership roles at Vanderbilt University's Owen Graduate School of Management in Nashville, Tennessee. Bill is the Francis Hampton Currey Professor of Management in Finance while Kelly is the Assistant Dean for Academic Programs and Student Life. "Education is very important to us," Kelly said. "We were fortunate to benefit from access to education and to work in this field, and we want to share our passion by offering that same benefit to others."

After making numerous gifts for Tete schools, they turned their sights to the future. One day they were updating their wills. During the discussion, they stopped, looked at each other, and said, "We have to include Outreach and the Tete ministry." "It was just so natural," Bill commented. By doing so, they were ensuring that The Outreach Foundation could continue their work after they were gone. "We've been given so much, and this is a meaningful way to give back and express our gratitude to God," said Kelly.

Join with Bill and Kelly by becoming a member of The Outreach Foundation's Great Commission Society. Society members have included The Outreach Foundation in their estate plans. Several simple sentences in your estate documents or beneficiary designation are all that's needed.

For more information about The Great Commission Society and planned giving opportunities, contact Tom Widmer at The Outreach Foundation by phone (804) 441-3679 or by email (tom@theoutreachfoundation. org). Like Bill and Kelly, you can help ensure that Outreach's work continues in the future.

Beautiful Connections

Though I have many things to write to you, I do not want to do so with paper and ink; but I hope to come to you and speak face to face, so that your joy may be made full.

2 John 1:12

blessed by deep, long-term relationships with partners in Syria and Lebanon. In early 2017, an Outreach team of ten visited both countries, coming alongside friends to "speak face to face." While there, the need for a new generator for the Presbyterian Church in Fairouzeh became apparent. Excerpts from emails between Outreach Executive Director Rob Weingartner, Rev. Joseph Kassab, Rev. Yacoub Sabbagh and Pastor Dan Willson tell the story and reveal beautiful connections among God's people all over the world:

February 16, 2017 Dear Rob,

Your gracious presence among us every now and then means a lot for us and the congregations around Syria ... especially the impact of encouraging our pastors who are trying their best to serve faithfully the Lord who called them for such situations.

I am sending you this letter explaining our desperate need for a generator which will help us running our services in the National Evangelical (Presbyterian) Church in Fairouzeh, Syria, a member church in our Synod. As you are aware, power (electricity) is provided for less than six hours a day in Fairouzeh village. Therefore, having a powerful generator for the church is inescapable.

Rev. Joseph Kassab, General Secretary of the National Synod of Syria and Lebanon

March 3, 2017 Dear Joseph,

I am writing to share the news that the Session of Fremont Presbyterian Church in Sacramento, CA, has voted to give $15,000 for the purchase of the generator at Fairouzeh... with this news we give thanks for the ways that God's faithfulness is displayed when his people come together in love and commitment to his mission.

Rob Weingartner, Executive Director of The Outreach Foundation

March 3, 2017 Dear Rob,

God has been so good to our people during this crisis. We pray that Christian ties created out of tragedy and needs; those ties will continue to be themselves our only need in the future.

Rev. Joseph Kassab

March 21, 2017 Dearest Pastor Dan Willson,

We, the Presbyterian Church in Fairouzeh, are truly thankful for your ...help to get us a new generator. I cannot describe what your contribution has done in the life of the church ...like moving from darkness into light.

We offer many services ...including Sunday service, Sunday School(more than 300 kids), women's group meetings (where we pray, read, sing, meditate, and have a time of fellowship), Bible Study, Young Families meetings ...

Please forward our greeting and thanks to your congregation in Fremont Presbyterian Church, in Sacramento, CA. You helped us write a new story.

Rev. Yacoub Sabbagh, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Fairouzeh

April 5, 2017 Dear Rob,

How fulfilling and satisfying to be used by God to support our sisters and brothers in Fairouzeh. We, too, are thankful!

Rev. Dan Willson, Associate Pastor Fremont Presbyterian Church, Sacramento, CA

Lives changed, hearts transformed. Glory to God!

FISCAL YEAR 2016 Connecting God's People with God's Work in the World

At Outreach, we are blessed to have the privilege of connecting God's people with God's work in the world. We're honored to work with our donors here in the United States, connecting them with our global mission partners in five continents. Whether it is building new churches in Kenya, training and counseling church leaders in Brazil or providing funds for heating and cooking fuel for Syrians displaced by war, you, our donors, have blessed us and our partners with yet another record year. For that we thank you.

Because your partnership with us is extremely important, we offer you this summary of 2016 financial activity. This is only a brief snapshot. An audited financial statement is available on our website (www.theoutreachfoundation.org) or from our office lion in 2016, reflecting an increase of 8.6% over 2015. Chart 1 reflects our five year contributions history, for which we are most thankful. Chart 2 shows how these gifts were designated.

About our donor partners

The Outreach Foundation received financial contributions from 1,388 donors in 2016, representing individuals/families, churches and organizations. Supporters represent 47 states, the District of Columbia, and various foreign countries. A breakdown of the gifts shows the following:

- 987 individuals gave $4.4 million
- 365 churches gave $2.9 million
- 36 organizations, including foundations and companies, gave $300,000

We think of our ministry as Kingdom work, not denominational work. Outreach does not receive financial support from denominational mission offices.

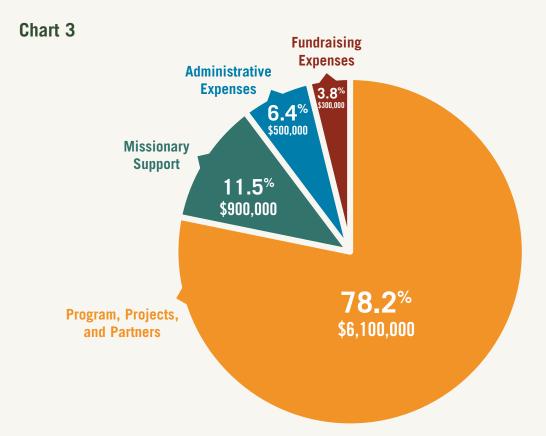

Although we work with many different denominations, our primary partners are congregations from the extended Presbyterian family. We joyfully partner with presbyteries and congregations from ECO, EPC, Fellowship Community and PC(USA) and others.

$7.8 million in disbursements/expenses

Outreach's focus is connecting God's people with God's work in the world. We receive gifts in our Franklin, Tennessee, office and disburse them directly to mission partners around the world. Last year, 89.7% of all disbursements went to our mission partners. We disbursed $7 million in support of missionaries and projects in 30 countries. See pages eight and nine for detail on the programs that were supported.

Our total expenditures for 2016 were $7.8 million when administration and fundraising expenses are included (Chart 3). As is typical, total disbursements exceeded funds received during the year. The Outreach Foundation disburses more funds for some programs than were received because these contributions have planned disbursements over multiple years.

2016 Disbursements

We welcome your partnership

Established in 1979, The Outreach Foundation exists to help you develop relationships and participate with global partners in God's mission. We focus on programs and projects that build our global partners' capacity for evangelism and mission. Your generous gifts help make this possible.

Outreach donors give in various and unique ways. Most gifts are current year cash donations. However, other approaches include gifts of securities, disbursements directly from retirement accounts, wills and bequests, and contributions to endowments. Any of these methods may be restricted by designation or directed to the overall ministry of The Outreach Foundation.

One way to appreciate what God is doing in the world is to join us on a discovery trip. Each year, we sponsor 8–10 trips to meet with our mission partners in various global locations to learn about their work and build mission partnerships. Travel with us to see amazing things that the Lord is doing. Check out our trips schedule on page 11 or online at www.theoutreachfoundation.org/trips aries and projects or developing mission partnerships through The Outreach Foundation, please contact us at (615) 778-8881 or info@theoutreachfoundation.org.

Notes to the Charts

Gifts reported in "The Outreach Foundation" include contributions designated for our operations, as well as funds received without restriction. Contributions designated to be used "where needed most" are considered to be unrestricted and are also reported in this category.

Dollars reported in "Missionary Support" include compensation and benefits for missionary personnel, expenses related to their ministry, and, sometimes, specific projects directly related to their work.

"Other Mission" includes a variety of projects for which The Outreach Foundation receives and disburses funds. Dollars reported here represent translation and distribution of Bibles, funds designated for mission trips including scholarships, evangelistic outreach, and other projects that complement our program priorities.

More detailed descriptions of our program priorities, as well as specific ministries, are available online at www.theoutreachfoundation.org.

Year of HIGHLIGHTS

We joyfully welcomed Rev. Jerry Deck, Zionsville Presbyterian Church, Zionsville, IN; Rev. Ryan Moore, First Presbyterian Church, Tulsa, OK; and Caitlin O'Hare, West Hills Church, Omaha, NE to our Board of Trustees.

Notice our enhanced social media presence? We welcomed Marcus DePaula as our new Digital Communications Specialist in January. Friend us on FaceBook and follow us on Instagram and Twitter for the most up to date news on partners around the world!

It was also a pleasure to welcome Rev. Juan Sarmiento, Associate Director for Mission; Dr. Frank Dimmock, Africa Mission Specialist, and Rev. Camille Josey, Small Church Mission Catalyst to our staff. We will share more about their work in future issues.

We're blessed to report that Charity Navigator, the nation's foremost charity evaluator, once again awarded The Outreach Foundation the designation Four Star Charity. We are also honored to be first in the Religious Activities category for Charity Navigator.

Outreach's Board of Trustees developed a strategic plan including three fundamental priorities that direct our work in the world. The priorities are discussed in the cover story and listed on the green panel on page two.

DEEP RELATIONSHIPS

To whom are you loyal — a clothing store, a neighborhood restaurant, maybe a toothpaste brand? Organizations depend on such loyalty — repeat business is critical to long term success.

Similarly, mission organizations like The Outreach Foundation depend upon and are grateful for repeat donors. As mentioned earlier in the newsletter, Outreach received gifts from 987 individual donors last year. Six hundred fifty one of the 987 were repeat donors. Those 651 donors trusted Outreach and appreciated our work enough to partner with us again. We were curious about the loyalty of our donors, so we looked back 20 years. During that period, we were honored to receive gifts from 14,024 unique donors, with 10,440 being repeat donors. Digging deeper, we learned that 6,529 gave gifts five or more times and 2,859 gave 10 or more times. We praise God for the deep donor relationships we have and the trust you show in us.

But we kept digging. We found five donors who have given gifts in each of the past 20 years. It amazed and humbled us. Five families believe in Christ-centered evangelistic mission enough that they wrote checks to Outreach every year since 1997.

We wanted to learn more, so we contacted one of the families, Rick and Susan Wesley from Winston-Salem, North Carolina. We asked what motivated them to be so consistent in their giving to Outreach year after year. Rick said there were several reasons. First, he said, "I have absolute trust that Outreach will use my gift as intended. There's never any doubt." He also said he and Susan appreciate the regular updates they receive about the missionaries and projects they support. They like the photographs and reading the latest news. Finally, Rick commented, "I've always liked the idea that I could go visit who I support and see them in action." True to his word, Rick has traveled to Madagascar and Haiti to visit with his global partners.

We're extremely grateful for our donor partners — first time and long time. God's work in the world could not be done without your partnership.

Did You Know?

As we celebrate the 500th anniversary of the Reformation there are more Protestant Christians in Africa than in North America and Europe combined.*

Of the five countries with the largest Protestant populations, four different continents are represented. They are North America (United States), South America (Brazil), Asia (China) and Africa (Nigeria and South Africa).

This year marks the 180th anniversary of the establishment of the first Presbyterian mission board in the United States. Prior to that, Presbyterian missionaries were sent in collaboration with other Reformed churches (Congregationalists, Baptists and Dutch Reformed) through the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.

The Outreach Foundation has among its partners the largest Protestant denomination in any given country (China) and the largest Protestant denomination in the Middle East (Egypt) along with many others historically related to U.S. Presbyterians in mission.
