ABOUT OUR PARTNER

Lauren Scharstein serves with the Presbyterian Church of East Africa (PCEA) in Kenya as the Director of Mission for the denomination. The PCEA Mission Department has responsibility for PCEA mission schools and rescue centers, sustainable water projects, evangelism, church planting, and global partnerships. Lauren loves connecting global partners to the work of the Holy Spirit in Kenya and becoming more deeply connected to God's work of healing and new life through water, education, and economic empowerment ministries. She previously served as a lecturer in theology and biblical studies at the Presbyterian University of East Africa, which trains pastors and evangelists for ministry in God's kingdom across East Africa. She has been particularly involved in ministry with vulnerable women and girls, providing training, administrative leadership, and program development for schools and rescue centers.
